

Baseball East Division Player of the Week

John Willner, Valdosta State

Valdosta State outfielder John Willner (SR, 6-2, 180, Regina, Saskatchewan).

Willner records his second accolade in three weeks after hitting safely in all four of VSU's games last week. The senior was 8-for-15 for a .533 average while also slugging for a 1.400 percentage. He helped the Blazers earn a 2-1 series win over Alabama-Huntsville thanks to a pair of two homerun games. The Regina, Saskatchewan native went 4-for-5 with five RBI, one double and two homers in a 9-4 win Game Two. He capped the series with two solo round-trippers in the 16-12 rubber match.
